

The U.S. Federal Government is currently reviewing its websites and materials in accordance with recent Executive Orders and related guidance. During this review, some pages and publications for grants and related guidance/solicitation documents will be unavailable. This month's newsletter contains mostly the same information as last month to provide for the most current information we have on open grants and their deadlines. Unfortunately, however, the links will not work at this time.

FY25 STOP School Violence Program Competitive Solicitation

Grants.gov Deadline: March 27, 2025, 11:59 pm Eastern
Application JustGrants Deadline: April 3, 2025, 8:59 pm Eastern

The STOP School Violence Program is designed to improve school safety by providing students, teachers, and staff with the tools they need to recognize, respond quickly to, and prevent acts of violence.

With this solicitation, the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) seeks to increase school safety by implementing solutions that will improve school climate. Solutions include school-based behavioral threat assessments and/or intervention teams to identify school violence risks among students, technological innovations that are shown to increase school safety such as anonymous reporting technology, and other school safety strategies that assist in preventing violence.
